The University School is a coeducational day school located on the Andrews University campus. It consists of two divisions: Ruth Murdoch Elementary School (K–grade 8) and Andrews Academy (grades 9–12). In addition to providing education for young people enrolled in the school, the University School serves as a demonstration school and a laboratory for educational innovation and research. The faculty and administration work with the School of Education in coordinating a teacher-training program.

Application for admission to either division of the University School should be made at least four weeks before the student plans to enter. The first semester begins approximately the last week of August. Information on admission may be obtained from the Admissions Office, Ruth Murdoch Elementary School, 8923 Garland Avenue, Berrien Springs, MI 49104-0570; or from the Admissions Office, Andrews Academy, 8833 Garland Avenue, Berrien Springs, MI 49104-0560.

With authorization from the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and other controlling organizations, the various schools of the university have entered into official academic affiliation/extension arrangements with certain educational institutions in North America and abroad. The programs range from academic monitoring of existing institutional programs to using institutions as extension campuses or examination centers for graduate and undergraduate education, with degrees being conferred upon students at the next official Andrews University graduation at the main campus and after completion and verification by the Records Office of all degree requirements. The affiliation/extension programs vary from courses offered in a variety of disciplines to full degree programs. Details of specific courses, approved curricula and programs are available from the Office of Affiliation and Extension Programs.

The Affiliation and Extension Programs Committee authorizes and reviews all University policies related to such affiliations and extensions. The administrative and academic committees charged with academic quality control and relevant policy development also govern the extension programs. Financial policies as described in this bulletin are applicable to extension programs in North America. All credits earned in Andrews extension programs are valid on the Andrews campus or any accredited extension campus. Once accepted into an Andrews program, students may transfer between home and extension campuses.

Affiliation/Extension Programs

Undergraduate

Undergraduate affiliation and extension programs are offered at Columbia Union College, Maryland; Hong Kong Adventist College, Hong Kong; Newbold College, England; Tyrifjord Vidergaende Skole, Norway; and University of the Southern Caribbean, Trinidad. Andrews University confers approved associate and baccalaureate degrees on those students who have fulfilled admission, academic and program requirements at these centers.

Graduate

Graduate affiliation and extension programs are offered in a number of disciplines by the various schools of the University.

The School of Business Administration offers the MBA degree in Trinidad and Portland. The School of Business Administration is a unit of Andrews University and is authorized by the State of Oregon to offer and confer the Master of Business Administration degree described in this bulletin, following a determination that State academic standards will be satisfied under OAR 583-030. Inquiries concerning the standards or school compliance may be directed to the Office of Degree Authorization, 1500 Valley River Dr, Suite 100, Eugene, OR 97401.

The School of Education offers the MA Education and the MED degrees at Spicer Memorial College, India. It also offers the MA in Educational Psychology and Counseling and the MA in Educational Administration at University of the Southern Caribbean, Trinidad.

The Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary offers the MA (Religion) at Babcock University, Nigeria; Romanian Adventist Theological Institute, Romania; Spicer Memorial College, India; and Zaokski Adventist Seminary, Russia. It offers the MA in Pastoral Ministry and the Doctor of Ministry at Babcock University, Nigeria; Zaokski Adventist Seminary, Russia; and Helderburg College, South Africa. In North America, the Seminary offers the MA in Pastoral Ministry degree and courses toward the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees at several locations.

In addition, the University offers the interdisciplinary, interschool MSA degree (International Development) at three sites: Chile, Italy and Kenya.

Other International Educational Opportunities

Andrews University co-sponsors Adventist Colleges Abroad—a program in which qualified students study overseas while completing requirements for graduation at Andrews. This language and cultural immersion is available in nine locations: Argentina, Austria, Brazil, France, Greece, Italy, Singapore, Spain and Taiwan. Participation is not limited to language majors. Contact the chair of the Department of International Language Studies for further information.

Undergraduate students may study abroad in the Andrews University Year in England at Newbold College program. The purpose of this program is to allow students to participate in a culturally enriching academic experience. Information about this program can be secured by writing Newbold College or contacting the Director of Affiliation and Extension Programs at Andrews University. Students should make application directly to the Admissions Office, Newbold College, Binfield, Bracknell, Berkshire, England RG42 4AN.

Our Values, Your Choice

Andrews University is a Christian community where Christ is celebrated and reflected in the academic, social, physical, and spiritual experiences of its members. As a Seventh-day Adventist institution, we seek to integrate faith, learning, and living, while each of us matures in our relationship to God and each other.

By choosing to attend Andrews University, students choose to be part of this uniquely Christian atmosphere. Every enrolled student signs a Community Values Agreement in which they affirm their decision:

1. To attend a faith-based institution by respecting Andrews University's Seventh-day Adventist Christian perspective and values. See "A Faith-Based University" section below.
2. To adopt a wholesome lifestyle guided by the core values of the Andrews University community. See "A Wholesome Lifestyle" section below.
3. To live on a residential campus in a University residence hall while single and under the age of 22 and to participate in a meal plan at the University's vegetarian cafeteria (unless living in the community with parents). See "A Residential Campus" section below.
4. To be part of a gathered community by attending weekly chapels, forums, and other required co-curricular programs. See "A Gathered Community" section below.

A Faith-Based University

Seventh-day Adventist Faith and Values. Students attending Andrews University soon learn that our Seventh-day Adventist faith and values set us apart. Our distinctive Christian perspective, guided by our understanding of Scripture, informs our faith as well as our practice. This becomes evident as students encounter the observance of a day of rest and worship, wholesome recreational and entertainment choices, an emphasis on healthful living, concern for others through local and global service, the care of dedicated staff and professors, and a hopeful view of the present and future as found in Jesus Christ.

Campus Ministries. Located in the Campus Center, Campus Ministries exists to help you experience your God-given purpose and accomplishes this mission in three ways: Inreach (on-campus ministry), Outreach (local off-campus ministry) and Student Missions. Recently Campus Ministries has been privileged to take steps to raise the level of support for ministry on campus, including a recently renovated space that's difficult to miss! It serves as a place for the planning of improvements to existing ministries such as Fusion Vespers, Outreach in the local communities, and short-term mission trips to places like Honduras and Peru. Out of this station, Campus Ministries also leads worship in both dorms weekly, mentors students, and preparing engaged couples for marriage. Every year, Campus Ministries helps sponsor the Easter Passion Play, a walking depiction of Christ's last moments on this earth with a climatic concluding scene, the resurrection of Christ. Campus Ministries encourages new ministry growth—students make ministry happen! Realizing
