Mission
 General & Interdisciplinary Studies serves students who need a general, individualized and interdisciplinary degree, or specific courses that do not naturally fit in with any existing departments. The goal is to cooperate with the mission of the sponsoring departments and the fundamental mission of Andrews University.

On-Campus Degrees

Baccalaureate Degrees in General Studies
 Andrews University offers a Bachelor of Science and a Bachelor of Arts degree in General Studies. Designed to serve students with career and personal goals that may not accurately match existing degrees, the General Studies degree is available through a special application process.

BA: General Studies BS: General Studies

Degree Requirements

1. Make application prior to taking the last 30 credits of a bachelor's degree. The approval process includes consideration of the appropriateness of the degree package for the career and personal goals of the applicant.
2. Fulfill the general baccalaureate degree requirements.
3. Complete General Education requirements as recommended for all BS/BA degrees.

- Formulate a joint Degree Program Plan with the advisor and sponsoring departments.
- Obtain departmental sponsorships for the focus or foci of the proposed program.
- Receive final approval from the Dean, College of Arts & Sciences.

AA: General Studies

AS: General Studies

The Associate of Arts or the Associate of Science degrees are available through application. Within the approval procedure, determination of degree appropriateness is made with consideration to the career and personal goals of the applicant.

Degree Requirements

- Make application prior to taking the last 30 credits of an associate degree. The approval process includes consideration of the appropriateness of the degree package for the career and personal goals of the applicant.
- Fulfill the general associate degree requirements.
- Complete General Education requirements as recommended for all AA/AS degrees.

- Obtain departmental sponsorships for the focus or foci of the proposed program.
- Receive final approval from the Dean, College of Arts & Sciences.

Minor in General Studies (20)

A minor in General Studies may be used in conjunction with regular degrees or with a General Studies major. A GPA of at least 2.00 is required in all transfer credits, and in all credits earned at Andrews University that are counted for the minor, with no grade below C-. At least 3 semester credits must be earned on campus in courses numbered 300 or above; no more than 5 semester credits from the major can be used in the minor.

Courses

See p. 168 for course descriptions.

Distance Degrees

Baccalaureate Degrees in General Studies

The General Studies degree offers a flexible study program which is particularly advantageous to distance-education students who already may have earned considerable credits and would like to organize these credits so they may earn a baccalaureate degree. See p. 276 for the School of Distance Education course descriptions.

BA: General Studies
